Royal Energy Obtains 3% Overriding Royalty Interest in Platte and Goshen Counties, Wyoming Oil & Gas Lease

Interest Encompasses More Than 360 Mineral Acres to Be Developed by Wyoming-Based Carpenter & Sons

BROOKLYN, NY--(Marketwire - March 7, 2011) - Royal Energy Resources, Inc. (OTCBB: ROYE) today announced that the Company has acquired a 3% overriding royalty interest in Platte and Goshen Counties, Wyoming. The interest encompasses 360 mineral acres and will be developed by Wyoming-based Carpenter & Sons.

"With this latest acquisition, we continue to add to our portfolio of Wyoming oil and gas mineral rights," said Jacob Roth, President of Royal Energy Resources, Inc. "We have great confidence that with Carpenter & Sons' experience and expertise in the industry, we can maximize our oil and gas production with this latest interest."

Royal recently announced it has acquired a 3% overriding royalty interest in Niobara County, Wyoming. This interest encompasses 80 mineral acres, and the oil and gas production will be developed by Black Diamond Minerals, LLC., a Denver, Colorado-based company. Black Diamond operates more than 100 wells in Wyoming and Colorado focusing on long lived oil and gas properties in the Rockies.

"The current situation in the Middle East underscores the importance of domestic companies to free us of our dependence on foreign oil and gas," stated Roth. "Concurrently, we need to take advantage of the opportunities that will create greater value for our shareholders," he added.
